MESSAGE FROM EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Welcome to the Summer Edition of Community Living Chatham Kent's Community Connections Newsletter.

Wednesday, April 26th, was Administrative Professionals Day. At Community Living Chatham-Kent, the Administrative Professionals are absolutely vital. This organization is so very fortunate to have the people that it does in these key positions. Thank-you to the Administrative Professionals for everything that you do. You are awesome!

I congratulate Charlie Beintema, Ella LaMarsh, and David Muckle, winners of the Rob McLandress Make A Dream Come True Fund, Bruce Cockburn, recipient of the Joan Olive Risdon Memorial Award of Distinction, and Darryl Southam, owner of NAPA Southam Automotive in Tilbury, winner of the Joyce M. Carr Champion Award.

The Box Lunch and Box Lunch for Kids occurred on May 11th, and 12th. A record one thousand six hundred and seventy-eight (1,678) lunches went out on the Thursday and a net revenue of $11,817.13 was raised. On the Friday, three hundred and eighty (380) lunches were provided to kids. Once again, SUBWAY was fantastic. Stores in Chatham, Wallaceburg, Dresden, and the Hospital participated. CLC-K was very grateful for the sponsorship from Enbridge, Enbridge Fueling Futures, and DKI First Choice Disaster Restoration. Thank-you to the eighteen (18) Fueling Futures volunteers, Rick McFarlane, Steve Tuinstra and the Chatham Optimist Club, agency employees, and people who access services, your assistance was extremely valuable.

The Family Network and CLC-K were very happy to host a Henson Trust and Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP) Seminar on June 22nd. The presenters were Brad Langford from Brad Langford Law Offices and Ken Bechard and Ian Bechard from Arrival Benefits Solutions. The seminar was outstanding, and much appreciation is extended to Brad, Ken, and Ian.

I am pleased to welcome Alison Topping to the agency. Alison is the new Accounting Assistant.

The sunshine and warmth have arrived, and on behalf of CLC-K, have a safe and enjoyable summer.

The weather was absolutely beautiful, making this experience even more memorable, and enjoyable!

TREE PLANTING

The Aktion Club volunteered with the Kiwanis Club to plant trees at Lion's Park. Everyone enjoyed the great outdoors, and took pride in beautifying Chatham-Kent.

Great job everyone!

DSPs and people who access services donated their time to support the Food Bank Fundraiser for The Salvation Army, and Knights of Columbus Council 1412.

The successful fundraiser was held at The Real Canadian Superstore in April.

DREAMS COME TRUE

Rob McLandress Make a Dream Come True Awards

Two awards of $1,000 each are given annually to people who have diverse abilities to assist in making a dream come true. New this year, CLC-K was honoured to receive the Making a Difference Award from the Provincial Network Human Resource Forum on October 3, 2022, in memory of Lesa Jansen. The Provincial Network also presented CLC-K with a $1,000 donation, which was used to make a dream come true.

Congratulations to the 2023 recipients!

You can often find David watching plowing matches, steam engine trains, horse and buggy videos, and tractors working in the fields. He has a very extensive collection of trains, tractors, and farm animals. His dream was to visit the Henry Ford Museum to see the old cars, spend the night at a hotel, and explore Greenfield Village. He mentioned how incredible it would be to see these in person as he has only ever read about them in books or online.

Ella has never been to a spa to experience a facial, or massage. Her dream was to spend the night at a Bed and Breakfast in Blue Mountain, then visit the ScandinaVe Spa. She was quite excited to learn that this would include fluffy robes as well! She stated that this opportunity would rejuvenate, relax, and reconnect her.

Charlie is a lifetime Toronto Blue Jays fan. He often talks about wanting to go to a game. On Saturdays, you can find him at the train station with his father, watching the trains come and go. His dream was to take the VIA to Toronto, and stay at the Marriott City Centre Hotel, which is where he would watch the game from his room, for the ultimate viewing experience.

Wishing David, Ella, and Charlie a wonderful time on their trips! Please stay connected with CLC-K through social media as we follow their exciting adventures.

Inclusion truly does matter to the employees at Entegrus in Chatham.

This group of men are Charlie's newest friends, and yes, we mean friends. Entegrus had been working in Charlie's neighbourhood for the past few weeks, and during that time, they continuously went out of their way to get to know Charlie.

The friendship started with Charlie watching them from a distance. As time went on, then they began talking more and more. These men took time to have real, meaningful conversations with him. Eventually, the workers were asking for Charlie if he wasn't outside.

When the job was complete, they surprised Charlie by presenting him with a hard hat and shirt stating, "Now you are one of us". Charlie was speechless. He beamed with excitement, and gratitude. This is a true example of social capital, and a feel-good moment. Charlie will never forget this, and we know he will wear his gifts proudly.

With May being Community Living Month, there was no better time to spread kindness, and celebrate inclusion!

Thank you to the Entegrus employees for their generosity!

VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION

On April 20, 2023, CLC-K celebrated the incredible volunteers shown above, by hosting an Appreciation Breakfast at the Links of Kent.

Volunteers play a crucial role in advancing CLC-K's mission by contributing their time, skills, and passion. CLC-K is beyond blessed to have this wonderful group of selfless individuals. Each person was presented a volunteer certificate from MPP Trevor Jones.

CLC-K was honoured to have Tom Sinclair as the virtual guest speaker at the Volunteer Appreciation Breakfast. Tom spoke of overcoming his challenges, and the importance to never give up. He discussed his experience of starring in "Champions", which is major motion picture movie with Woody Harrelson.

Tom's message was to believe in yourself, and never let anyone tell you what you can't do. Thank you, Tom, for your inspirational words!

Congratulations to Bruce Cockburn, the recipient of the Joan Olive Risdon Memorial Award of Distinction.

Bruce has been involved with CLC-K for many years. He joined the Board of Directors in 2016, and he coordinates "The Bowling Stones" fundraiser that benefits CLC-K, Outreach for Hunger, and St. Clair College Scholarship Fund. But more than what Bruce has done, is his personality that is the true gift to Chatham-Kent.

Always with a smile, always there to assist, Bruce has a simple way of making everyone feel important. He has created a warm, inclusive environment at Bowlerama.

Thank you, Bruce, for your continuous contributions to CLC-K!

From a behavioural consultative perspective, he has willingly shared his wisdom, experience, insight, and remarkable skill in writing policy, and intricate details that a policy encompasses. CLC-K, and his fellow Committee members would like to wish Dr. Tim the very best in his next chapter...a well-deserved rest. Congratulations to Dr. Baker!
